

Global/Country-Specific Shipping Restrictions & Prohibited Items

FedEx is unable to ship prohibited items on behalf of its customers. The global and country/region-specific prohibited and restricted items lists will help you determine whether or not your product is prohibited for shipment. Please review both lists to make this determination.

What Are Prohibited Shipping Items?

Certain items cannot be received, stored, shipped, imported and/or exported due to regulatory, hazard, safety or other reasons. Transactions involving these commodities are strictly prohibited, regardless of origin or destination.

Please note: Prohibited items are forbidden to be exported from the origin country or territory or imported to the destination country or territory

What are Restricted Shipping Items?

Certain items have regulatory, hazard, safety or other considerations and require approval from Regulatory Compliance, Risk Management and Legal departments prior to handling. Transactions involving these commodities are restricted, regardless of origin or destination.

Please note: Restricted items may require special permits or licenses prior to their sale, export from or import to your specified country or territory.

Only prohibited items will be listed below for each country or territory.
